Looking Great on a Budget: Makeover Your Closet

Many of us are not equipped with a set of instructions to help us look our best on a budget. This exciting class will help you discover how to look amazing, regardless of your size or shape, while on a budget. You will find out great fashion secrets on choosing the right styles, colors, fabrics, and accessories. Discover how to make the right choices on color and quality when shopping for clothes. If you need an instruction manual to shopping for your body, this is the class for you.

Cost: $25; Sat., April 18, 1:00-3:00 p.m.; 1 class meeting.

Instructor: Cassandra Hawkins-Wilson

Enhance Your Professional Image

Learn to be at ease during an interview or when selecting your business attire. In this class you will learn about: dressing for an interview, body language at an interview, dressing for the job you have, and/or dressing for the job you want. The instructor will offer many other tips to help you acquire the image of a well-polished and successful person. Have all of your questions answered!

Cost: $25; Sat., April 18, 10:00 a.m.-Noon; 1 class meeting.
